JONES AND WALTON.

THREE Democrats and eight Republicans and eight voting men of New Mexico are called upon during this campaign to elect to office two men to represent the people in the national capital. A. A. Jones candidate for the senate, and W. H. Walton candidate for congress are the men whom the voters are being asked to send to Washington. Both men are capable, competent, and will render distinguished service to their constituents in the halls of the senate and house.

Mr. Jones is one of the largest men in the nation today, having demonstrated his fitness and ability for great official responsibility and superior executive service during his nearly two years as first assistant to Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the department of the interior. No person in New Mexico, who had occasion to consult with Assistant Secretary Jones either by mail or personally in Washington, on official business, has been loath to compliment, or to say that Mr. Jones failed in no respect in executing every courage, every scrupulous and anxious and satisfactory service offered in his attempt to effectual service in the interior department since that Mr. Jones will be giving his attention to the affairs of the people of New Mexico, in the office of senatorial service.

Mr. Jones may go to Washington with more prestige with a wide acquaintance and knowledge of men and affairs. He will know well, no doubt how to do things to further New Mexico's interests. New Mexico has lost in the Senate the several years Thomas B. Carron of Santa Fe and A. B. Landis of El Paso, Texas. What the former Carron did for New Mexico! And with his picture in the papers, he talking incessantly about the Mexican situation, Mr. Jones is interested financially in Mexico. He did less than nothing for the work he was supposed to represent.

Do the people of New Mexico believe that Frank A. Hubbard will be able to do as much for the state as either Carron or Landis? The most violent partisan will be forced to admit that Hubbard has neither the brains nor the experience they possess. And yet Hubbard wants to go to the senate. Why? To satisfy his vanity, his political ambition.

"Bill" Walton has never been to Congress before, but he's going to be there when the roll is called the next time. Walton's qualifications for congressmen are widely known. They need no mention of any length. Comparison between Walton and Hernandez would be interesting, but entirely unnecessary. Hernandez may be discussed from consideration of making the question, "What has Hernandez done for New Mexico while in Congress?"

Walton is qualified to remain in Congress, he is a honest, a natural born leader. He is simple, sincere. He knows how to go about it.

"Bill" Walton will come out at least with the biggest majority any political candidate ever polled in that county. For this statement there are two reasons. One is that the people of Grant county want Walton for Congress. The other is that the others of that county, regardless of political connections, want to take a step back at the Republican machine which put the man under W. D. Murray, of Silver City, in his candidate for state treasurer. Mr. Murray was unopposed without warning. He was double-crossed.

The people of Grant county will vote intelligently in this election. Watch the figures:

BUREAUS CAMPAIGN.

WEIRDLY, independent candidate W. D. K. B. Sellers, former mayor of Albuquerque, and whose last was in the race for governor at the state convention in Santa Fe, has undertaken the work of directing the organization of the Democratic party in Bernalillo county. Col. Sellers is the right man for the job. The Colonel has more ideas in his head—ideas that win—than any other man in the state.

It is time that efficient, systematic organization of the county is being undertaken. The independent-republican voters not only in Albuquerque, but in every precinct outside the city, are willing to pitch in and participate in this campaign. They do not want Hubbard for senator, Bursum for governor or Hernandez for congress. They will be glad to help link the triple alliance.

BIG SUGAR FACTORY
IN MESILLA VALLEY
NOW IS ASSURED

After a Month of Steady Work the Citizens of Las Cruces Have Secured Pledges for the Necessary
Beet Acreage.

Las Cruces, N. M., Sept. 12.—The issue of over a hundred acres of beet sugar plantation acreage in the Mesilla Valley was brought to a successful conclusion Saturday night, when 150 of the leading citizens made a formal pact to take up 2,000 acres of beet sugar in 1917.

Matters came to a crisis Saturday with a shortness of over 1,000 acres of the required 2,000 necessary to secure the sugar beet factors. One of the biggest sugar interests in the valley of the Rio Grande was held by Mr. Clegg on Friday night. A general increase in production has been made through the extension of the Co-operative Agricultural Extension Act, 43½ per cent agricultural information to farmers and for inducing them to apply it. This phase of legislation is one of the most significant and far-reaching measures for the elevation of agriculture ever adopted by any government. It provides for cooperation between the States and the Federal Government. This is highly important and significant principle. When the Act is in full operation there will be expanded greatly under its terms from a Federal and State survey over a total of over 20,000,000 in the direct education of the farmer; and this amount is being up will be increased by contributions from local sources. It will permit the placing in each of the 2,850 rural counties of the nation two farm demonstration and schools who will meet the demonstrators in the more difficult problems confronting them.

The meeting appointed an executive committee consisting of H. J. Hill, W. B. Mandeville, Frank E. Lester, G. C. Snow, J. H. Day and Felipe Latorre, who with the vice-president secretary of the meeting, had their plans Saturday morning. At Saturday evening an enthusiastic and inspiring two hours' conference session and by 5:30 4,200 acres of sugar beets had been signed on. More acreage than completing the meeting, and the day was saved through the co-operation of the business men of the community, who enthusiastically and willingly signed up for the planting of 200 acres of sugar beets. This acreage they guaranteed to cultivate the farmers and photon members to carry out their pledges.

It might another cause of alarm if citizens held back in Las Cruces to receive the report of the executive committee. It was decided at that meeting to set apart Wednesday, October 10, as Sugar Beet day. On that day the citizens will be held in Las Cruces with delegates and citizens attending from all parts of the Rio Grande valley below the Elephant Butte dam. All stores will close, a big free barbecue is to be held and there is every indication that Sugar Beet day will be the biggest community spirit event in the history of the Mesilla valley.

Institutions are using extended efforts to secure the citizens of El Paso and Deming from which points large delegations are promised.
